VOLUME XXV

COLUMBIA, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY JULY 25, 1922.

NUMBER 40

Mrs. Loretta A. Richards Died Saturday Afternoon.

Mrs. Loretta A. Richards, wife of W. A. Richards, died Saturday afternoon of diabetes at the age of 65 years, 2 months and 15 days. Mrs. Richards (nee Coffey,) was born at Columbia, Ky., on April 23, 1857, and was educated in the public schools and an academy in that vicinity.

On August 8, 1875, she was married to W. A. Richards who with six children and twelve grandchildren survive her. The children are: George Richards and Mrs. B. Wood, of Denton, Arthur, Buford and Arvin Richards, of Oklahoma, and Mrs. J. T. Hawes, of New Mexico. Two children are dead. A. Albert Richards, who died in 1904 at the age of 23 years, and Charles Owen Richards, an infant who died in 1893.

The family moved from Kentucky to Dallas county in 1891 and in 1896 moved to Denton county. Early in life Mrs. Richards united with the Baptist church and lived a consistent Christian.

Funeral services were to be held Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the residence, 1703 West Maple Street, with Rev. Will C. McClung, pastor of the First Baptist Church, in charge. Burial will follow in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.—The Record & Chronicle, Denton, Texas.

To Dog Owners.

You are not paying any attention to the warning in regard to your dogs. Now positively this is your last warning. You either must tie, confine or muzzle your dog, or I will have them killed.

C. G. Jeffries,
Judge of Adair County Court.

A Great Day.

On Sunday, the 16th, there assembled at Mt. Pleasant Methodist church, near Esto, in Russell county, a large crowd, the occasion being to honor one of the county's native sons, Rev. R. E. Stevenson, A. B. B. D., who honored his "old home church" with a pleasant visit.

Bro. Stevenson delivered a great sermon in the forenoon and in the afternoon a great lecture. As this is the church where Bro. Emery spent his boyhood and to again be permitted the pleasure of meeting old schoolmates, neighbors and friends doubtless brought fresh to memory the happy scenes of long ago.

Rev. Stevenson is Vice President and Principal of the Theological Department of Lydia Patterson Institute, El Paso, Texas, an institution that trains Mexican young men for preachers and missionaries to their own country.

Bro. Stevenson has a wife, who is a cultured and refined lady and three interesting children. A. G.

The Columbia Outlaws stacked their fire arms last Thursday and met the Jamestown civilians with open arms and knee trousers. They announced that they would be law-abiding, but reserved the right to hit every ball that was pitched in the direction of the batter, and to knock it to "Kingdom come." The contest was called at 3 p. m., and it was spirited from the beginning to the ending. The score card showed at the conclusion that the Outlaws had registered 11 and Jamestown 6. The game was witnessed by quite a number of lovers of the sport.

The premium list for the Columbia Fair is published in the News-to-day. The Association hangs out very inviting premiums. Prospects are flattering for one of the best meets Columbia has ever had. People of Columbia who expect to keep open houses should prepare to do an unusually amount of feeding and sleeping.

The largest catalogue ever printed and sent out from this office is the one for the Columbia Fair. They are now in the hands of the stockmen.

ATTENTION, DEMOCRATS.

On Saturday, August 5th, a primary election will be held in this county and the Democrats will vote to nominate a candidate for Appellate Judge in the Third District. There are but two candidates, Hobson L. James, of Elizabethtown, Kentucky, and D. A. McCandless, of Munfordville, Ky.

Mr. James is a Democrat, who has a clean record, has never held office and has not before this been a candidate. He has the endorsement of all the lawyers and Democratic officials of his county and the endorsement and support of Chief Justice Rollin Hurt, of the Court of Appeals. He is well qualified for the office and can win in November.

Judge McCandless is now a Circuit Judge in a Democratic district, having been elected last November for a term of six years from January 1st, 1922. In 1897 he was elected County Judge of Hart county, but before his term of office expired, resigned to make a contract with the Fiscal Court over which he had presided, to represent his county in a lawsuit from which employment he expected to realize more benefit than from completing his term as County Judge. In 1906, on the death of his cousin, he was appointed Commonwealth's Attorney and served as such five years. In 1915 he was nominated by a majority of forty-two votes for Circuit Judge of his district and elected for a term of six years. He appointed his daughter as his Court Stenographer and his brother-in-law as a Master Commissioner. Last year he sought re-election and filed with the Secretary of State a declaration provided for by Sub Section 6 of Section 1550, Kentucky Statutes, in which he promised under oath that if elected as Circuit Judge he would qualify for the office. Before he was elected and after it was too late for him to have opposition for Circuit Judge, he announced as a candidate for Appellate Judge and if he now secures this nomination and is elected in November, he must resign as Circuit Judge and Governor Morrow will appoint his successor. The judge so appointed would appoint a Master Commissioner, Receiver and Trustee of the Jury Fund in each of the six counties in the district and a Court Stenographer for the district. These officers so appointed would of course be Republicans in a Democratic district. Therefore, each Democrat who votes for McCandless in the primary votes to put twenty Republicans into office in a Democratic district. Most Democrats think we have too many Republicans in office now and all Democrats who are true to their party should and will vote for Mr. James for this nomination.

Several Republicans are working for McCandless because they believe he can be defeated by them in November, if nominated, and they know that should he be elected in November, they will gain a Republican Circuit Judge and the officers and influence which goes with the office to be used in the interest of the Republicans in the campaign of 1923 when state officers are to be elected. The Group Gathering, at Keith's Chapel, the fifth Sunday, has been postponed on account of measles. Alvin Rosson.

Eld. W. G. Montgomery will lecture at Shiloh Church, Monday night the 31st of July. He will also lecture at the Christian church, this place on Tuesday night following. Every body invited.

The finest peaches we have seen this season were grown by Mrs. Lanie Staples, at her home. They are large, smooth, and very delicious. For the selection she left at this office we return our sincere thanks, assuring her that the remembrance was gratefully appreciated.

A list of appointments for meetings of those interested in Tobacco pooling is published in today's News. Read them and attend the meetings.

Big Game.

The following will be the line up for next Friday's contest:

Bids will be received until the 1st day of August for hauling Portland Cement and Yellow Pine Lumber from Campbellsville, Ky., to the Lindsey-Wilson Hill. There will be approximately 2,800 bags of Cement and 40 or 50 thousand feet of lumber, and various other things for this job. Mail your bid to J. C. Miller, Campbellsville, Ky.

J. C. Miller.

The meeting at the Presbyterian church started Sunday and is being largely attended. Dr. Charles W. Welch, of the Fourth Avenue Church, Louisville, is doing the preaching. He is a great Bible student and a captivating speaker, commanding the attention of all who hear him. He is not only a speaker, but a teacher of the Word, and no one can hear him without being entertained. All the Churches in Columbia are cordially invited to attend the services. If Christian people are in favor of the betterment of the community, they will work together for an outpouring of the spirit of God.

Vote for Hobson L. James.

Last year Judge McCandless wanted a Circuit Judgeship. He was nominated and elected for a term of six years. Now he is not satisfied, and is asking the Democrats to give him an Appellate Judgeship. He would then resign and permit Gov. Morrow to appoint a Republican to succeed him as Circuit Judge. Do you favor this? If not, you should support H. L. James for Appellate Judge.

The Columbia base ball club did fine work at Greensburg last Friday. The team was in fine shape and went into the game with the determination of winning. When the contest opened both sides felt confident and the home fans were dead sure that the honors would go to Greensburg. In this they were mistaken, as the score card at the close showed Columbia 7, Greensburg, 4. "Burley" Young and his team, in high glee, left for home, while the Greensburg team contented itself "by chewing the rag."

Rev. J. P. Scruggs.

[FRANKLIN FAVORITE.]

Rev. J. P. Scruggs, pastor of the Franklin Baptist Church, is one of the ablest divines of the Baptist faith in Kentucky, and with this combines an industry which makes him a pastor of splendid worth.

Rev. Scruggs succeeded Rev. B. H. Lovelace as pastor, and it is questionable if a higher compliment could be paid him than to say that he has measured up to the exacting requirements of his flock as set by his beloved predecessor, for Rev. Lovelace was and is a man among men, devout, upright and fearless in the discharge of all duties, both public and private.

Without making himself obnoxious to young men, who on account of youth, are not disposed at all times to follow the path set down in Holy Writ as "straight and narrow," Rev. Scruggs has, by his genial bearing and friendly courtesy, won the confidence and respect of all, and is a force for good in this section which could scarcely be estimated.

Another attribute which greatly aids him in the work of the Master is his broad and liberal conception of life. He is directly interested in the material advancement of the county and is always ready to accept place on any program where the people are called together to discuss plans where progress can be made.

Some years ago Rev. Scruggs received a call from the church at Columbia, the county-seat of Adair, which, as a subsequent events went to show, proved to be the happiest event in the whole of his ministerial life, for while ministering to the flock he met and later married the daughter of the lamented Judge James Garnett, an elegant gentleman and in his day one of the State's ablest jurists. It was long the custom in this country to dismiss the subject after giving the family name to which the wife belonged before her marriage, but the Constitution now regards women as on exact equality with men, and The Favorite is therefore permitted without violence to ethics to continue the narrative. Much of the good Rev. Scruggs is enabled to do, both as citizen and minister, is due to the encouragement received from and womanly graces imparted by his devoted and consecrated companion, who is one of the State's most highly cultured and most active church workers.

A number of friends of Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Russell were guests at a picnic at their home, on Greensburg Street, last Friday evening. A delicious picnic supper had been prepared by the ladies. After the supper was served music and games were enjoyed by all.

A ladies' parasol was left at the Bank of Columbia several weeks ago. The owner can have it by describing the same.

Lucien Angely, charged with selling moonshine liquor, was tried before Commissioner T. C. Davidson, last Thursday. He was held over and his bond fixed at $200. He bonded Friday and upon his release Sheriff J. M. Howell, of Green county, who was here to re-arrest him, took him in charge and left for Greensburg, there being charges against him in the Green circuit court. The Sheriff was accompanied by Mr. Warren White, Town Marshal of Greensburg.

Let your slogan be "we must beat Burkesville."

The window frames for the third story of the Jeffries building are being made. All the wood work for the addition will be gotten ready in order to put up the additional story as soon as the brick is done.

A Quiet Place.

Thirty years ago the little town of Glenville was known as being unusually lawless, and the town was called "Hard Scratch," but since that time quite a change has come over the community, and to day it is the most law-abiding settlement in Adair county. We learn from Mr. C. A. Walker that thirty years ago, at each circuit court, the whole town was summoned to Columbia as witnesses, on various offenses. The last, held in this month, July, there was not a witness from the town of Glenville nor a man drawn for jury service. "This is an evidence," said Mr. Walker, that our people are law-abiding. "In fact, we have one of the largest Sunday-schools in the county, and everybody attends church." The course that Glenville has followed in the last thirty years is very commendable.

Notice.

At Columbia, Ky., on July 31, 1922, I will receive bids for hauling brick from kiln to the Building site of the Bank of Columbia. The brick will be handed from the kiln to the hauler without expense to hauler. At least 10,000 brick must be hauled per day, July 25, 1922.

J. C. Miller, Contractor.

Changed Hands.

Mr. G. W. Dillon has purchased the stock of drugs, notions, etc., from Russell & Taylor and will take possession the first of August. Mr. Dillon is a registered Pharmacist, and is one of Adair county's best citizens. His son, Mr. Rich Dillon, is also a registered pharmacist, and either he or his father will remove from Breeding to Columbia. Either will be a valuable acquisition to our community. Russell and Taylor have been doing a splendid business, and they will be greatly missed from the business affairs of this place.

The home boys get their baptism of fire Thursday. Support them with your presence.

Work on the gymnasium at the Lindsey-Wilson, is moving along rapidly, and it is hoped to have it completed early in the fall. It is to be brick and it will be large enough for all purposes.

Notice.

July 22nd, 1922

To each and every election officer, who may be holding election seals and keys to locks of the Ballot Boxes, you are hereby notified to return them to the County Court Clerk's office this week without fail.

Respt.,

Died at Springfield.

Mrs. Bettie Waggener, who was the wife of Mr. Nathan Waggener, died at Springfield last Friday afternoon. She was a very excellent lady, a native of Adair county, the most of her life having been spent near Milltown. She was about 60 years old and was a sister of Mrs. W. S. Chapman, this place, who attended the funeral. Her maiden name was Thomas.

Strayed from my premises, a large, Sandy, Polan China sow and young pigs. Sow will weigh about 500 pounds. Rings in her ears. Will pay a reward.

A. B. Corbin.

Attention, Parents.

Children are not allowed to attend school in any district, outside of the one in which they live, without the permission of the trustees of their home school and also the permission of the trustees of the school they want to enter. The teachers will also have to be consulted.

Tobacco Meetings

Will be held at the following places:
Milltown, Wednesday, July 26, at 10 a. m.
Pickett, Wednesday, July 26, at 1 p. m.
Keltner, Wednesday, July 26, at 4 p. m.
Gradyville, Thursday, July 27, 9:30 a. m.
Weed, July 27, 1 p. m.

An Attractive Home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Miller have gone to a considerable expense in making improvements on their home, located on Burkesville street. Besides extending their concrete blocked porch around the West side of their residence, they have just had completed a lovely sun parlor on the north side, making their residence the most attractive in Columbia, and it is as conveniently constructed as it is attractive. Mr. H. T. Walker put the finishing touches on this handsome residence.

See the big game Thursday, July 27. Batteries; Wilson and Lewis and Anderson for Burkesville.

Marriage Licenses.

County Clerk S. C. Neat has issued the following marriage licenses recently:

John Harlan Rooks to Miss Emma L. Holmes.
Mont Burton to Miss Ethel Burton.
Nathan P. Hays to Miss Annie C. Antle.

A daughter four years old of Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Powell, who live on Dr. S. P. Miller's farm, died last Saturday.

The ballots for the primary election are now being printed at this office, and will be delivered in due time.

Let every Democrat, women as well as men, vote in the primary.
